Attendance Policy

- Please carefully review each of the dates and times above as well as the information below.
- A class member will miss no more than two classes (total) to be eligible to graduate.
- Opening Retreat and Commencement are required sessions. Absence from these sessions will result in dismissal from the program. If you are unable to attend either of these sessions, we ask that you withdraw your name.
- Mid-year Retreat will count as two absences if missed.
- Participants will be counted absent if they arrive 30 minutes after the class has started or leave 30 minutes prior to the official dismissal.
- Participation in the class projects is a requirement for satisfactory program completion. See below.
- In extenuating circumstances, an appeal may be submitted to the executive director.

Class Project

Community Leadership Program class members participate in class projects. While class time is allocated for project learning and discussion, additional (sometimes significant) outside time is required for the coordination and ultimate success of the projects and application of design thinking. Participation in the projects is a program requirement.
